

Visitors on First Honeymoon Observe Golden Wedding

Celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary of Dec. 22 was just one of the highlights of the holiday season for Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Flewelling of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, who are spending their first honeymoon here with Mr. Flewelling's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Flewelling at 1314 Elm Ave.

The group also celebrated Mr. Flewelling's birthday on New Year's Day, as well as the birthday of Mrs. Flewelling's sister, Mrs. William Bourne, of 1453 W. 216th St.

The Flewellings, who were married in Cheyenne, Wyo., in 1905, drove 19 miles in a horse drawn buggy to secure their license and ceremony. Mr. Flewelling began at an early age in the merchandise business when he gathered vegetables from his mother's garden, bunched them and sold them to the neighbors. He made his livelihood from a grocery and general merchandise store, retiring a few years ago.

Mrs. Flewelling, besides assisting in the store and rearing her own family of three, spent much time accompanying the country doctor on calls to deliver babies. The couple now have 12 grandchildren.

A sense of humor is most important in making a successful marriage and a mutual happiness in helping other people is attributed to their successful 50 years of married life.

The couple, with relatives and friends, celebrated their wedding anniversary at Los Angeles restaurant. Twenty-five guests attended the birthday dinner honoring Mr. Flewelling and Mrs. Bourne.

Mrs. Flewelling's 58 egg angel food birthday cake was a duplicate of the one she made 25 years ago the last time the two birthdays were celebrated together.

'Snow White' to be Staged by Peninsula Committee Feb. 25

Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra is comprised of an active group of cultural minded women who work to stimulate interest in and further knowledge of symphonic music and other cultural arts in the community, as well as aid in the support and maintenance of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra.

Every spring, the committee sponsors a children's play to raise funds for this purpose. This year the play is the story of "Snow White," to be produced through the joint efforts of the Palos Verdes Players and the San Pedro Theater Arts Association, and directed by Nancy Andrews and Eldridge Walker.

Auditions and readings for parts in the production, which will follow the Walt Disney version, will be held on Saturday, Jan. 7, between the hours of 1 and 4 p.m., at the Dapplegray School Cafeteria in Rolling Hills. The public is cordially invited to participate.

"Snow White," the Princess and the Seven Dwarfs are singing, as well as speaking roles, whereas the roles of the King, Queen, Huntsman and Witch are straight speaking parts. Mrs. Richard W. Park, project chairman for the Peninsula Committee, says, "We don't want any talented youngster or interested adult to miss the opportunity of auditioning for a part.

Roles of the Seven Dwarfs can be fitted by children 10 years or older, while the Prince and Snow White could be played by singers as young as 15. The speaking parts are planned for adults."

The production date for the play is Saturday, Feb. 25, in the afternoon, at San Pedro High School Auditorium.
